Remember all those moments we've shared—staying in seventh hour, struggling to survive gym class, confessing our latest "crushes," looking across the footlights for the first time, and wearing the scarlet and green for old Highland Park?

Recalling all the ups and downs, the "high" times and the down-in-the-depth moments, the good fun we've had with you, we dedicate this HIGHLANDER of 1948 to you, Our Classmates.

Forty students sought positions on the HIGHLANDER staff last spring when a call was made for interested students to apply. Announcement of appointments was made by Miss Baskett, advisor, in May.

Until this year staff positions were filled by members of the senior English class, and the staff was chosen at the beginning of the fall term.

The new plan worked well, however, because the early selection of a staff made it possible to hold meetings during the summer months. Therefore, when school opened, the 1948 HIGHLANDER Staff was well-organized and actual yearbook work was begun immediately.

*Dear Marilyn,
It's been swell knowing you and having you for a friend. I had lots of fun at your birthday party. I hope you'll have many more just like it. Best of luck

Walter Hines, genial high school principal and instructor of American history, reads the daily newspaper to learn the latest news developments.

As fathers whose children have attended Highland Park High School and as citizens with true community spirit, the three members of the Board of Education work diligently to keep school standards high.

James E. Smith, energetic director of the board, relaxes in an easy chair . . . . Ben H. Abels, who has served faithfully for twenty years, studies his stamp

HIGHLAND PARK HIGH SCHOOL.

*Best wishes to the girl
with a smile
John M. Croft*

With a fancy new garden tractor as a helpmate, jovial John M. Croft seems to get results! Mr. Croft is teacher of social sciences.

"Knit six, purl six," counts Miss Josephine Riederer, our accommodating world history and English teacher, who is always willing to lend a helping hand.

*Heris hoping your senior subjects

J. Hermann*

Good-natured Lyndon Hermann, science instructor, spends many out-of-school moments pushing the Pablum into young Roger. Pa urges, "Tum on now. It's dood!"

Juniors and seniors best know our very pleasant teacher of typing and shorthand, Miss Louise O'Brien.

Our peppy vocal music director, Miss Gladys Nygren, is caught by the camera as she dreams over a letter.

Always smiling, even at work, is Miss Jessie Nichol, who is mathematics instructor.

Miss Helen Marr, who makes a trip to the office a pleasure, gives the posies
a final touch.

Mrs. Pauline Matoush, instructor of mathematics and Latin and a favorite with all, likes her music soft and low.

THE FACULTY...

who have contributed more to our education than merely the content of texts.

Mrs. Louise Rohler, librarian, is strict but strictly "super." Her favorite pick-me-up after a day in the arena (Study Hall) is a dish of ice cream and a piece of cake.

In September, students welcomed John Merriam, teacher of mathematics and science; now they declare him to be a "right guy." He enjoys dashing out to the "drug" for a coke.

You boys should be eternally grateful to Mrs. Hazel Lindquist, who helps Highland Park lassies to become real homemakers. A camera catches her as she darns one of Johnny's sox.

Byron Crowell, manual training teacher who has been affectionately dubbed "Sammy" by the student body, listens to a news broadcast.

Miss Helen Trotter, peppy little typing and bookkeeping instructor, enjoys spending her leisure time embroidering.

CLASS OF 1948

Seniors of 1948 have been "doing big things" ever since they were little tots. They were so precocious when they were five, that their moms decided that a kindergarden was a dire necessity. So in 1936, a pre-school group was organized. They hummed on through grade and junior high school with Ferrol Myzer always getting top spelling honors and with Edna Wendt's Aunt Emma having to put her in the hall rather frequently.

As freshmen in 1944, the group was joined by several new students and invaded H.P.H.S. The girls swooned over Willard Rhodes, who remained the shiek that entire year. Donald Dew was "smitten" by Norma Matoush, but "Casanova" Walker took affairs into his own hands! In the white elephant gift exchange at their Christmas party, Dorothy Burman received a corncob pipe and a pouch of tobacco.

The big event in their sophomore year was their assembly program at which Dick "Sinatra" Baker crooned "I'll Be Seeing You" to Beth Barnard. With their unique Baccalaureate and Commencement decorations, these enthusiastic Scots scored a success.

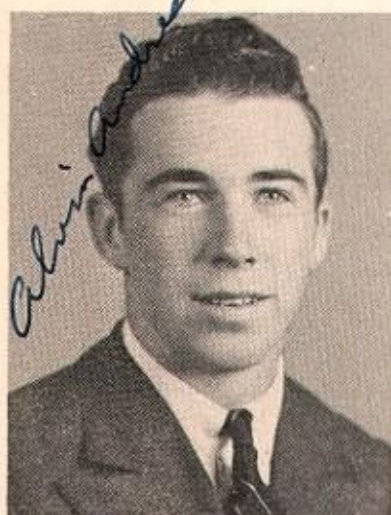

Keeping their pioneer spirits during their junior year by staging their dance away from the high school building, they gave an oriental garden prom at the Hotel Jayhawk Roof Garden. Everyone had a thrilling evening except the stags—"Mouse," Alvin, Dale, and Bryce, who remained true to their absent lassies.

They started their senior year by assisting the HIGHLANDER staff in sponsoring a watermelon feed and a dance on the tennis courts. At a Sweetheart Hop they entertained their "Big Moments" by presenting a mock wedding with Parson Kincaid tying the knot between "Sweet Tooth" Slawson and "Rover Boy" Raine.

Fun it was—all of it. The Class of 1948 leaves Highland Park High School with dozens of memories and scores of friends.

Highland Park completed its second big gridiron season, defeating all comers for the second straight year. Running out of the "T," the Scotties rolled up eighteen victories in those two seasons. Nine of the wins were earned this year.

The Scotties' offense was sparked by a hard-hitting line and fast, shifty, open-field running. If you want to know about the Scots' 5-3-2-1 defense, just ask some of the teams they played!

All-Jayhawk League selections included Leroy Anderson, Bud Sloop, Dale Horton, Carl Metzler, Lyle Raine, Bryce McCarter, and Alvin Andres. Melvin Andres was placed on the second team. Dale Horton was chosen for the third team of the State All-Stars, and Bud Sloop and Bryce McCarter received honorable mention.

FIRST ROW: Manager Smith, Metzler, Jones, Sloop, Andres, McFarland, Coach Hays
SECOND ROW: Frey, Anderson, Collier, Kekar, Raine, and Martin.

Scottie cagers opened their 1947-1948 season on December 5 with a defeat at Ottawa which made things look a bit dark. That game was no indication of the Scotties' skill, for they emerged from a full schedule with a successful season.

Placing third in the Jayhawk League, Highland Park had as high-point man Lyle Raine, who was placed on the Jayhawk All-Star Team. King Frey, Bob Jones, and Duane Martin made the second team with Alvin Andres and Dick Kekar chosen for the list of honorable mentions.

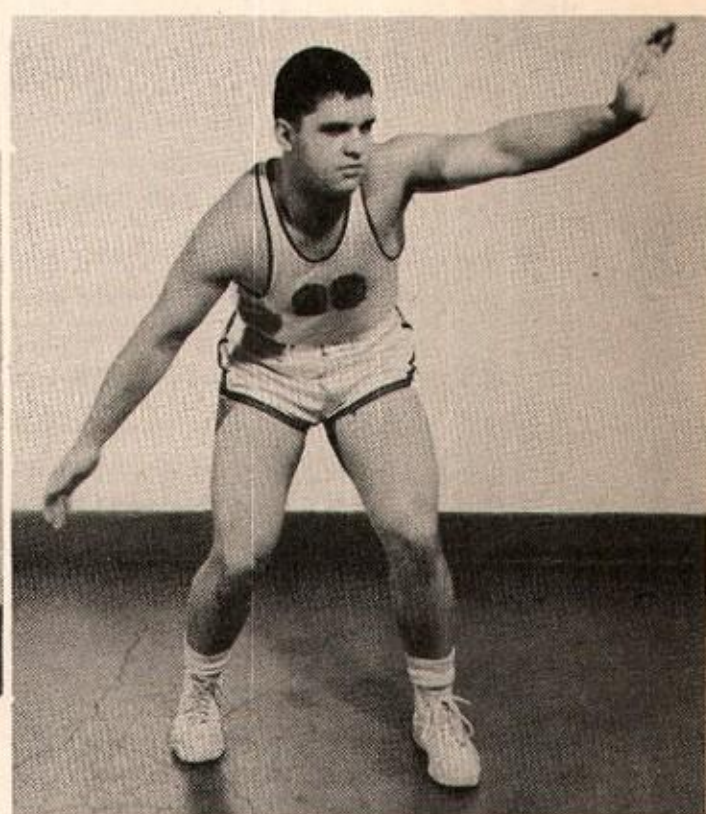

This year's season was packed full of thrilling games, especially those with Washburn Rural, the main hometown foe, and Wamego.

Scotties closed their season by winning second place in the regional tournament at Wamego. In the first two tussles the Scots defeated Chapman and Clay Center. In the finals, however, the Parkers played Abilene and lost to them 46-47 in the final two seconds of play.

Leonard Browne and Melvin Andres "get set."

After winning the 1947 Jayhawk League meet and the Ottawa Relays, the Highland Park track squad won further honors by placing fourth in the K.U. Relays (Class A) and fourth in the Beloit Relays (Class A).

Outstanding man of the season was Bob Diel, who scored top honors in the 440 run at Kansas University and first in the state meet at Manhattan.

Other lettermen were LeRoy Anderson, Don Meek, Dick Walker, Jim Chilson, Bill Rankin, Ferrol Myzer, Bryce McCarter, Melvin Andres, Don Andres, Willard Rhodes, Carl Metzler, Galen Murphy, Bud Sloop, Don George, and Philip Thompson.

With these fifteen lettermen returning to the oval squad, this year's team is promised a successful season. Results of 1948 meets cannot be given because the deadline for year-book copy precedes the track, tennis, and golf events.

HOMECOMING

Dick Walker, Master of Ceremonies, presents bouquet to Queen Anna while Robert and Leland Harvey hold corsages to be presented to Princesses Donna and Norma.

On October 31 between halves of the Highland Park-Seaman gridiron tussle, Anna Brady, 1947 Homecoming Queen, was presented to fans by Dick Walker, emcee. She and her attendants, Donna Kraus and Norma Matoush, were given flowers which were gifts from the Scotch Lassies. Following the game, at a varsity in the high school gymnasium, a coronation ceremony was held for King Bryce McCarter, Queen Anna, Princesses Norma and Donna, and Princes Alvin Andres and Melvin Andres.

The Royal Party—Melvin, Norma, Leland, Bryce, Anna, Robert, Donna, and Alvin.

Following the ceremony the royal couple lead the dancing.

Preceding the coronation, King and Queen enter through colorful arch formed by Scotch Lassies.

Queen and her attendants arrive at stadium in roadster provided by Les Scrinopskie.

Scotch Lassies led by Wilma Gates present impressive marching drill preceding the introduction of the queen at the field between halves of the game.

SPORTS ROYALTY

Lyle Raine, Donna Kraus, Norma Matoush, and Bob Jones.

Seniors took honors at the annual Sports Dance March 25, when Bob Jones and Norma Matoush were chosen King and Queen of Sports. Donna Irwin, 1947 queen, crowned the members of the royal party, which included Lyle Raine and Donna Kraus as Prince and Princess of Sports. Corsages were presented to the girls, and the boys received boutonnieres. Crown bearers were Deborah and Donald Hines.

Scotch Lassies chose as their theme "Scotch Highland" and transformed the gymnasium into a gay Scottish scene. Del Weidner's band played from a gay plaid bandstand and used a bright red piano.

Dear Marilyn,

I have enjoyed going to school with you. I don't know you very well, but I hope to know you better. Lots of luck.

Heeta
Smith

Dear Marilyn,
I don't know you too good but I hope to meet you next year. Lots of luck to a swell girl
Heeta Smith

Dear Marilyn,

Should I use this whole page and write you a letter? I guess I'll try to say everything I think about you in merely half a page. Well, first of all I do like your bangs. They really make you look cute. Second, I really enjoyed that ride in your Dad's truck. I had a lot of fun getting you into trouble with Mr. Herrman, though it was really your fault for not paying attention. Do you think I owe you a hundred dollars for failing to be at the Bowling Alley that night? I'm sorry but I thought you could pass the Physics test without my help. This is just about half a page so I guess I'll quit.

Don Brunton

Dearest Marilyn:
Gosh if I've really had last three years with you that are really a swell little gal and some of the adventures we had when you took care of me I think you have done for everything you thanks! Love
Jackie Brunton

Dear Marilyn
Here's to a swell girl in 12th study hall. I have enjoyed seeing you in there and you have brightened up a lot of dead time for me. I hope you don't think I am too much of a smoker and a drinker because I am going to reform (sometime)? Well here's wishing you lots of fun and good times in the future
Your friend
Lindsay Gillespie

Dear Marilyn; I wish you much happiness. I really think you are swell. I didn't get to know you very well until this year.

As always
Don Meek

Dear Marilyn

Honey I think you are one of the sweetest, nicest persons in the whole world. I really appreciate your taking me so many places and when I get my new convertible I'll just take you wherever you want to go. This year has certainly been a struggle, but such a wonderful friend has made it much more pleasant. If we get out of high school and go to K State I know we'll really have fun there too. I doubt if it will ever compare to our high school years though. It's too bad those boys (you know who I mean) didn't show up that night. I imagine we'd have had some fun, don't you? We sure do some crazy things, but that is what makes life more interesting. I hope I can keep on knowing you in the future.

Loads + Loads of love.

Bertha

Dear Marilyn
I don't know of anything I would want in a friend
that you don't have. I hope we can have all the fun and a lot more next year ~~that~~ we have this.

Love,

Marilyn Cruise
